Hello Students!

Over the summer, you are required to read a book and complete a book report. This year, all students will be reading the same book, Littsie of Cincinnati by Jinny Powers Bertin and Norah Holt.

These are calendars that show a good way to break up reading this book over the several months of summer. You do not need to follow the break downs exactly. Feel free to read at your own pace.

There are different questions that go along with the book on the next few pages. Please make sure they are answered and turned in on the first day of school.

We look forward to meeting you this fall!

Third Grade Teachers

Your Name: _____

What is the setting of the story? [Remember it is place and time!] _____

What did Littsie's mom call her? Do your parents or friends call you by a nickname? How does that make you feel? If you do not have a nickname, would you want one? What would it be?

---

---

---

What are three adjectives you can use to describe Littsie? Why did you choose each word?

---

---

---

How was life in Cincinnati different back in 1832 compared to life here now?

---

---

---

How would the story be different if it was from Littsie's sister, Megan's, point of view?

---

---

---

Write a summary of Littsie of Cincinnati. Remember the process Somebody, Wanted, But, So. Somebody (main character) wanted (their goal) but (what kept them from their goal) so (how they reached the goal):

Circle how many stars you would give this book? 1 2 3 4 5

Why?

---

---

---

What is a story that can be written in modern day Cincinnati? What a summary of a story. Remember Somebody, Wanted, But, So (explained in a previous question)!
